

Joachim GOLTZ Baritone

Joachim Goltz was born in Mannheim. After his studies at the Hochschule für Musik in Detmold he became member of the ensemble at the theatres in Freiberg, Detmold and until 2011 in Würzburg, where he had great success as Amfortas in "Parsifal" and as Kurwenal in „Tristan und Isolde“. Guest performances during this time brought him to Hannover, Saarbrücken, Mannheim, Weimar, Erfurt, Bremerhaven and Heidelberg.

Joachim Goltz` repertoire is widely spread: parts such as the title role in Verdi`s "Falstaff", the Four Villains in „Hoffmann`s Tales“, as well as Alberich in "Ring des Nibelungen" marked his versatility as well as his performances as Papageno, Faninal ("Rosenkavalier") or Carlos di Vargas in "La forza del destino".

Besides the important opera roles he is singing also operetta like Eisenstein in "Fledermaus", Baron Weps in "Vogelhändler" or Leopold in "Im weißen Rössl".

Furthermore he is constantly performing also in the concert field, he often appears at Konzerthaus am Gendarmenmarkt in Berlin, where he was much acclaimed in performances of a.o. Walter Braunfels` opera "Die Vögel" and in Joseph Martin Kraus` opera "Aeneas in Carthago" under the baton of Lothar Zagrosek.

Joachim Goltz was member of the ensemble of Hessisches Staatstheater Wiesbaden, where he sang very successfully Don Pizarro, Heerrufer, Danilo and Enrico in „Lucia di Lammermoor“.

He sang Kurt Weill's „Street Scene“ and „Lulu“ at Semperoper Dresden, Amfortas in Saarbrücken, Alberich in Detmold, Telramund in Zagreb, „Mozart Requiem“ in Berlin, Eisenstein in Mannheim as well as Baron Weps, Danilo, Enrico, Vater in "Hänsel und Gretel", Heerrufer/Telramund and Ping in Wiesbaden.

Last contracts include Eisenhardt in the new production "Die Soldaten" at Komische Oper Berlin, Peter in "Hänsel und Gretel" in Wiesbaden, der Alte Mann in "Prinz Bussel" at Semperoper Dresden, Telramund in Würzburg, Braunfels` "Ulenspiegel" at the Brucknerfest in Linz and Telramund in Augsburg.

Joachim Goltz is member of the theatre in Mannheim, where he is heard in productions of "Der Idiot", "Salome", "Hänsel und Gretel" "Love of the three oranges", "Zauberflöte", "Boheme" and as Eisenstein and Figaro in "Nozze di Figaro".

Recent and future contracts until 2021/22 include Pizarro in Lübeck, Fra Melitone und Pizarro in Hannover, Eisenhardt in "Die Soldaten", Peter and "Carmina Burana" in Wiesbaden, Flying Dutchman in Bremerhaven and Hagen, Fred/Petruccio in "Kiss me Kate" and Tevje in „Anatevka“ in Heidelberg, "Die Gezeichneten" and „Oedipe“ at Komische Oper Berlin, Flying Dutchman in Hagen, Pizarro in St. Gallen, Hagen, Bonn and Osnabrück, Telramund in Dortmund, „Fledermaus“ in Kaiserslautern, Celio in „Love for three oranges“ in Stuttgart, Pizarro in Prague, and Gunther in Wiesbaden.

In Mannheim he is singing „Alceste“, „Bassariden“ Peter, Klingsor, Eisenstein, Schaunard, Danilo, Don Magnifico, Beckmesser, Kurwenal, Alberich, Pizarro, Golaud, Faninal etc