

Roman TREKEL Baritone

Roman Trekel is born in Pirna, Germany, both parents were opera singers, with eight years he started to study Oboe, later on he studied at the Academy of Music in Berlin with Prof. Heinz Reeh, where he finished his studies also with distinction.

First he was member of the opera studio at Staatsoper Berlin and became then member of the ensemble, he is still engaged at Staatsoper Berlin where he has been heard with roles like Pelleas, Count in "Nozze di Figaro", Guglielmo/Don Alfonso, Harlekin, Papageno, Sharpless, Ford, Onegin, Wolfram, Kurwenal and Amfortas,

He made his debut at Festival in Bayreuth, where he returned for more than 10 years and sang at most of the major houses including Covent Garden London, Madrid, Zürich, Amsterdam, Florence, Madrid, Tokyo, he made his successful debut at Scala Milano as Wolfram.

He was heard in solo concerts at Alte Oper Frankfurt, with MDR Leipzig, NDR Hannover, Philharmonie Cologne, at Schwetzingen Festival, at Ludwigsburger Schlossfestspielen, at Wigmore Hall London, Musikverein Vienna, Zürich, Brussels, Atlanta, Chicago, New York, and in orchestra concerts with Berliner Philharmoniker, Deutsches Symphonie Orchester Berlin, Münchner Philharmoniker, Chicago Symphonie Orchestra, Cleveland Orchestra, Israel Philharmonic Orchestra in Tel Aviv.

He worked with conductors such as Claudio Abbado, Daniel Barenboim, Pierre Boulez, Michael Gielen, Hartmut Haenchen, Elisha Inbal, René Jacobs, Marek Janowski, Fabio Luisi, Zubin Mehta, Ingo Metzmacher, Kent Nagano, Antonio Pappano, Helmut Rilling, Sir Georg Solti, Horst Stein, Christian Thielemann, Franz Welser-Möst, Lothar Zagrosek and stage directors like Philippe Arlaud, Ruth Berghaus, Fred Berndt, Nicolas Brieger, Patrice Chereau, Doris Dörrie, August Everding, Erhard Fischer, Harry Kupfer, Nikolaus Lehnhoff, Jonathan Miller, Alexander Schulin and Keith Warner.

Until 2024 he is heard at Staatsoper Berlin as Donner, Gunther, Musiklehrer, Papageno, Posa, Sprecher, Geisterbote, Ottokar, Faninal, Lescaut, Herr Fluth, Peter, Gunther and Minister in "Fidelio".

Recent and future contracts until 2023/24 include "Das Floss der Medusa" in Amsterdam, Amfortas in Valencia, Sprecher in "Zauberflöte" at Opéra Bastille in Paris, Amfortas and Beckmesser in Chemnitz, "Penthesilea" in Brussels, Eugen Onegin in Copenhagen, Wozzeck at Scala Milano, Count in "Nozze di Figaro" in Tel Aviv, Pizarro in St. Gallen, "War Requiem" in Prague, recitals in Zürich, Antwerp and Oxford, "Paulus" and 8^o Mahler in Florence, Wolfram at New National Theatre in Tokyo, Forester in "Cunning little vixen" at Staatsoper Vienna, "Capriccio" in Leipzig and "Hippolyte et Aricie" in Paris.

Mr. Trekel has recorded more than 35 CD's and DVD's including two complete recordings of "Lohengrin" and two of "Tannhäuser", further also "Cosi fan tutte" and "Nozze di Figaro".