

Helena ZUBANOVICH Mezzo

Helena Zubanovich was born in Poland, she studied at the Academy of Music in Katowice, with a scholarship from the Deutsche Akademie, she studied also at Musikhochschule in Hamburg.

She was awarded first prizes at the Antonin Dvorak Singing Competition in Karlovy Vary, the Robert Stolz Competition in Hamburg, a special prize at the Young Talent Competition in Helsinki and the first prize at the Singing Competition in Palermo.

Starting her career as a soprano, she sang roles like Mimi in Poland and Hanna Glawari in Rostock. Then she changed to mezzo repertoire singing in Darmstadt Fortunata in Bruno Maderna`s "Satyricon" and in Passau Eboli.

She had a fest contract at Volksoper Vienna, where she was heard as 3^o Dame in "Zauberflöte", as Baba the Turk in "Rake`s Progress", as Manja in "Gräfin Mariza" and as Quickly in "Falstaff", she was also member of the theatre in Erfurt, where she sang e.g. Ulrica, Amneris and Santuzza and in Ulm singing roles like Jezibaba in "Rusalka", Judith in Bartok's "Bluebeard", the title role in Tchaikovsky`s "Jeanne d`Arc", Fricka, Herodias and Eboli.

First guest contracts brought her to Monte Carlo, Teatro Bellini in Catania, Düsseldorf and Darmstadt, she sang concerts in Zürich, Hamburg, Palermo, Osaka and Salzburg.

More recent contracts brought her to Teatro Massimo in Palermo as Page in "Salome", to Sevilla as Gymnasiast and Theatergarderobière in "Lulu" and to Festspielhaus Salzburg with "Kindertotenlieder" and 9^o Beethoven, furthermore, a CD of Donizetti`s "Maria Padilla" was released, with Ms. Zubanovich in the role of Inez, she sang "Verdi Requiem" in Bremerhaven, Mary at Opera Beijing, 3^o Mahler in Montpellier, Ulrica in Meiningen, and Amneris and Fenena in Tokyo.

Last engagements until 2016/17 include Jezibaba and Klytämnestra in Brno, Ulrica in Meiningen, "Verdi Requiem" in Stuttgart, Czipra in "Zigeunerbaron" in Klagenfurt, Jezibaba at Volksoper Vienna, Santuzza in Prague, Bruckner`s "Te Deum" in Warsaw, Quickly in Poznan and Jezibaba in "Rusalka" at State Opera Munich, she sang in Poznan Amneris, Santuzza and Carmen, in Warsaw "Seven Gates of Jerusalem", in Oman "Rusalka", in Minsk a Penderecki concert, at Festival Heidenheim Santuzza, in Braunschweig Ulrica and in Oslo Hindemith's "Santa Susanna.

Recent and future contracts until 2019/20 include Zia Principessa in Düsseldorf, Amneris in Essen, "Boris Godunov", "Hänsel und Gretel", "Elektra", "Walküre", "Götterdämmerung", "Andrea Chenier", "Suor Angelica" at Staatsoper Munich, Azucena in Caen and Amneris, Carmen and Kostelnicka in "Jenufa" in Poznan.