

Gabriela HRZENJAK Soprano

Gabriela Hrženjak is born 1998 in Varaždin, in Croatia. At the age of five she started singing with when "Little Nightingales" in Varaždin. Later on she studied at the Academy of Music at in Ljubljana and continued her studies at the Academy of Music in Zagreb.

She participated successfully at several international Competitions in Maribor, Split, Treviso, Novi Sad, Rijeka and Vienna.

She made her debut in opera performing the role of Villa, in Massenet's "Cinderella" and sang then in Varaždin, Split, Osijek and Zagreb.

2023/2024 she is singing "Carmina Burana" and "Amphitruon" in Zagreb, Roxana in "Krol Roger" and Queen of the night in Kosice, "Dido and Aeneas" in Varaždin and "Carmina Burana" in Braunschweig, "Krol Roger" in Budapest and Bratislava, Woglinde in "Rheingold" in Rijeka, Voce del Cielo/Tebaldo in "Don Carlos" at Festival Klosterneuburg / Vienna and Norina in Budapest.